

Noa

Design: Gian Vittorio Plazzogna

Una cucina autentica e familiare, accogliente e conviviale fin dal primo sguardo. La sua spontaneità è caratterizzata dalle linee asciutte e dai numerosi elementi che la rendono funzionale e bella da vivere. Noa reinterpreta in modo consapevole e originale i canoni della tradizione, ne estrae l'essenza e coniuga il calore della memoria alla pulizia del design contemporaneo, realizzando una pregevole sintesi tra moderno e classico.

An authentic and familiar kitchen that transmits a cosy and convivial feeling as soon as you look at it. Its spontaneous personality is expressed by its terse lines and by the numerous elements that make it practical and beautiful to live in. Noa reinterprets traditional canons in a conscious and original way; it extracts its essence and combines the warmth of bygone days with the clean-cut lines of contemporary design, creating a prestigious synthesis of modern and classic styles.
